

DAY'S DOINGS IN NORTH SCRANTON

congregation of Baptist Church Buys a Site for Building.

SEVERAL CHOIRS WILL COMPETE

Death of William Blanchard a Popular Young Man of This Part of the City--T. H. C. Maloney Causes the Arrest of More Alleged Speakeasy Proprietors--Alderman and Mrs. Edward Fidler Give a Children's Party.

The negotiations between William Chappell, representing the congregation of the North Main Avenue Baptist church and Michael Hamrick terminated yesterday and the congregation is now the owner of the property at North Main Avenue and Oak street, which on Monday was the property of Mr. Mannick.

On this property the congregation will at once proceed to erect a church building that will be a credit to them and to this part of the city. The erection of a new church was rendered necessary by the rapid growth of the congregation during the last few years.

ESTABLISHED TOMORROW.

An extended that is attracting much attention will be held tomorrow in the West Market Street Welsh Baptist church. Some of the most representative vocalists of this region will be present, and participate in the various competitions.

It is probable that the evening session will attract a large attendance. At that session the competition of choirs from the various congregations and all the Welsh churches have entered the competition, which promises to be very spirited.

DIED FROM SPINAL MENINGITIS.

William Blanchard, aged 17 years, died yesterday morning at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Blanchard, of East Market street, from spinal meningitis. The young man was very popular in this part of the city, and his death is greatly regretted. The family has been sorely afflicted of late. One son was killed recently on the Delaware and Hudson railroad, while following his vocation of brakeman. Announcement with reference to the time of William Blanchard's funeral will be made later.

MALONEY STILL AT WORK.

T. H. C. Maloney's daily batch of warrants issued yesterday led to the arrest of Andrew Kommisski and wife, John Zienieski and wife, of Prieberg, and Mrs. Patrick Gallagher, of Providence road. All of these were arraigned before Alderman Roberts, who held them in $500 bail each for their appearance at court to answer charges of selling liquor with a license. Another batch of warrants was issued last night at the instance of Mr. Maloney and will be served today.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Alderman and Mrs. Edward Fidler gave a reception in honor of their daughter, Anna's, sixth birthday, at their home, on Spring street, Monday afternoon. A large number of children were present and enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Fidler. The following were present: Edna Jones, Ruth Kennedy, Ruth Benjamin, Alice Fidler, Pearl Utery, Annie Kelloway, Edna and Helen Bamford, Susie Fidan, Maud Williams, Alice Munn, Lillian Steele, Alva Washburn, Hilda Nyhart, Master Ambrose Mulley, Jr., Joseph Fidan, David Williams, Fred Aten, Haydn Jones and Haydn Davies. Mrs. Bamford, Benjamin and Hatfield looked after the welfare of the children.

A large party of friends was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Sanders, at their home on Church avenue, last evening. The event was in honor of their son, William.

TOLD IN A FEW LINES.

Miss Annie Clark, of Green street, is visiting relatives in East Benton.

Lewis Davies, of Wayne avenue, who has been visiting friends in South Gibson, Pa., returned home yesterday.

N. Welsh returned yesterday to his home in Starucca, after a brief visit with R. W. Sillick and family, of Capouse.

Evon A. McGinnis and Lila Sillick, popular young people of this place, quietly left town on Thursday, going to Binghamton, where they were united in marriage by the Rev. E. K. McCord, of that place. A reception followed the wedding at the home of the bride's uncle, D. W. Salisbury. They returned Friday evening and on Sunday were given a welcome by their many friends at the home of R. W. Sillick. Mr. and Mrs. McGinnis will begin housekeeping at once.

Miss Elizabeth Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Thomas, of the Bull's Head hotel, will be united in marriage this evening to Benjamin Evans, of Wanamie. The ceremony will be performed at the bride's home. The members of the Father Whitty Tourist club will produce a drama, entitled "Innifall," tomorrow afternoon and evening in St. Mary's hall.

The Young People's society of the Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church conducted a "Heart Social" last evening in the Sunday school room of the church. The idea was out of the ordinary, and a large attendance was the result.

The members of the North End Christian Endeavor choir will please meet at the Presbyterian church this evening after prayer meeting.

A choir has been organized on the side to compete in the Wilkes-Barre extended Decoration Day, and will be under the leadership of the veteran choir leader, Thomas G. Evans. The leadership augurs well for the success of the choir, as Mr. Evans has been invariably successful in his past efforts as a leader.

GREEN RIDGE.

The Green Ridge Loyal Temperance Legion held their first meeting last evening in Nettleton's hall, on Green Ridge street, near Penn avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Altemose, of Marion street, are spending a few days with friends in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Isaac Lansing, of Sunset avenue, who has been spending a few days in Philadelphia, returned yesterday.

The Foreign Missionary society of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. W. Kellow, of Monsey avenue.

Charles Packard and Conrad Reil are spending a few days in Moscow.

LIVE NEWS OF WEST SCRANTON

Marriage of Miss Mae L. Davis to John Jacobs, of Lafayette Street.

MANY GUESTS WERE PRESENT

Ceremony was Performed at the Home of the Bride--The Anthracite Wheelmen, of North Scranton, Entertained by the Electric City Wheelmen--Entertainment Conducted by Class No. 7 of Washburn Street Church--Other News Items.

Miss Mae L. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Davis, was married to John Jacobs, of Lafayette street, last evening at the residence of her parents, 123 North Everett avenue.

The ceremony was performed in the parlor and cut-flower decorated parlor at 8 o'clock in the presence of many friends and relatives. Rev. Thomas De Gruchy, pastor of the Jackson Street Baptist church, officiated. The bride, attired in a pretty costume of cadet blue, with pearl and chiffon trimmings and carrying white carnations, was attended by Miss Dora Jacobs, as bridesmaid. Miss Jacobs wore a pretty gown of military blue, with silk trimmings and carried pink carnations. Leland Thomas of Pittston, acted as best man. Mrs. W. C. Browning played the wedding marches and during the ceremony rendered the air from "O Promise Me."

At the conclusion of the ceremony congratulations were tendered and later the guests enjoyed a most enjoyable repast. Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs are both well known young people and will immediately begin housekeeping in a newly furnished home at 1611 Lafayette street.

The guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Michael, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bruning, Mr. and Mrs. Griffith Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Golden, of Wyoming; Misses May and Sallie Williams, Miss Lily Jones, Morgan Williams, of Wilkes-Barre; David Harris, of Neschohony.

WHEELMEN ENTERTAIN.

The cozy club house of the Electric City Wheelmen on Jackson street, was brilliantly illuminated last evening with warmth and good cheer filled each room. The members of the Anthracite Wheelmen, of North Scranton, had been invited to be the guests of the Electric City club and the visiting club was well represented. The room throughout were artistically decorated with palms, flowering plants, and the club colors, being the handwork of Miss Harriet Davis, florist of South Main avenue.

There were no general committees, the entertaining club having resolved itself into a committee of the whole and no detail was lost sight of whereby the guests should feel at home. After the guests had arrived and introductions given, an excellent programme was carried out. The programme extended throughout the entire evening. Edwin G. Peters acted as chairman. The programme was opened with a piano solo by Professor Forwerth Prosser, followed with a solo by David Owens. A selection was given by the Guitar and Zither club, comprising Robert Frederick, E. D. Curtis and J. R. Relp. President W. S. Meers, of the Electric City wheelmen, made some remarks of a general nature. C. B. Picher, esq., then gave an address of welcome to the visitors to which H. A. Smith responded in behalf of the Anthracite club.

The exercises as continued consisted of solos by John Gleason, H. A. Smith and James Cummings; recitation, by E. D. Owen; piano, by Professor Forwerth Prosser; selection by the Orpheus musicians, comprising Professor J. M. Chance, William Stanton, cornet; Fred Widmayer, violin; Louis Zorzi, clarinet; and Charles Doersam, pianist. The Guitar and Zither club played again. Several members of the Electric City club also rendered impromptu selections.

The lunch which was served from 11 o'clock to midnight, consisted of croquet sandwiches, olives, cake, coffee and lemonade. The guests of the club were J. J. Owens, Charles Hopewell, Lester E. Losey, H. A. Gillespie, J. D. Keator, H. W. Lehr, L. Kline, D. O. Emery, Jonathan Vinson, Jr., H. Ward, Harold Benjamin, Charles Conant, Francis Lisk, Henry Watts, of the Anthracite Wheelmen; Professor Forwerth Prosser, E. Damascus Owens, John Gleason, Robert Frederick, E. D. Curtis, M. J. O'Neil, Edward Williams, D. J. Davis, Elmer Hughes, P. E. Evers, Edward Betts, Peckville; Samuel McCracken, J. Cummings, J. M. Powell, J. Arlington Reese, James Smith, Perry, William Gaughan.

ENTERTAINMENT OF CLASS NO. 7.

The efforts of members of class No. 7 of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church, of which Miss Amanda Nichols is teacher, toward providing a first class entertainment met with a decided success last evening, as was evidenced by the appreciation of the large audience at the church.

Miss Nichols presided and the programme as rendered consisted of the opening and closing sections by the Orpheus club, comprised of Prof. J. M. Chance, William Stanton, cornet; Fred Widmayer, violin; Louis Zorzi, clarinet, and Charles Doersam, pianist. Recitation by Miss L. Ansel Porter; solos by the Misses Cordella Freeman, Lida Garagan, Susan Black and Mrs. H. Baldwin Valentine; Thomas Beynon rendered a tenor solo in pleasing voice. A quartette, comprising the Misses Black and Garagan and Messrs. Morgan and Beynon, gave a selection. Miss Elizabeth Henwood gave a piano solo and Fred Widmayer a violin selection. As can be readily seen each participant

HOW TO REMAIN YOUNG.

Feed the Hard-Working Organs of Your Body, with Just What They Require.

Here are some important truths expressed by a well-known professor of a New York medical college. "All Nature ever needs, or ever asks for, is a little help. She becomes overworked--is it any wonder she needs help?"

"The heart beats night and day and never stops. The lungs are always working away like a pair of bellows. The stomach is constantly occupied; so are the kidneys and the liver. You cannot give them a vacation, but you can help them immensely. Those great organs--the kidneys, the liver--are willing to work, but they need food and you can give it to them."

"You can easily feed these organs, and you will be surprised how much better you will feel if you do so. There is a discovery which is an actual food for the kidneys. It is known to scientists and the world as Warner's Safe Cure. By all means try it. A little of this remarkable medicine taken three times a day will produce a most happy effect. Instead of being tired, fagged out, despondent and with little ambition, you will grow bright, hopeful and happy. Women, especially, need a good friend of this kind, and I know of scores of ladies who would not think of being without this grand remedy to help them when they specially need it."

"The concert given at Germania hall last night by the Germania band and orchestra was one of the most enjoyable heard in this part of the city for some time. It was a benefit for Professor Guth, leader of the band. The boys and their leader have every reason to feel proud of last evening's event. The hall was filled, fully thirty minutes before the beginning and when the curtains were raised, every inch of room was taken and many were obliged to stand in the corridors. The programme had eight numbers, but an encore was responded to every number, for following the rendition of each piece, was a popular German ballad. The "William Tell" overture by the band was played in a faultless style, and next came the well known Workingtons' Singing society and the merry fellows delighted their hearers with a comical song "Schwick Schwack."

The Germania band also rendered pleasing selections, and the orchestra, augmented by members of the Lawrence and Symphony orchestras, rendered selections from Hungarian operas. They responded to two encores, and the concert came to a close by the rendition of the Klondike march by the band, a composition of Professor Guth. A dance followed.

FUNERAL OF MRS. GRAF.

From her late residence on Cedar avenue, the funeral of the late Mrs. Martin Graf took place yesterday afternoon, and long before the remains were borne to the hearse, her home was thronged with sorrowing friends. Rev. W. A. Nordt, of the Hickory Street Presbyterian church, conducted the services held at the house. Rev. Nordt took for his text the thirtieth chapter, thirtieth verse of the first Corinthians, "By Faith, Hope and Charity ye shall be saved."

The reverend speaker spoke at some length on these attributes possessed by the deceased. After the services the remains were conveyed to the Pleasant avenue cemetery and interred. The pall-bearers were H. K. Klumwizer, John Miller, Henry Webber, August Schneider, Alex Ruder and William Schaeffer.

MISS BRESSER BURIED.

About two hours that the mourners of the Graf funeral were returning from the grave the funeral of Miss Dora Bresser, a first cousin of Mrs. Graf, was moving to the same cemetery. Rev. Mr. Nordt also officiated, and in his sermon he paid a fitting tribute to the spotless life of the deceased young woman.

Many floral designs were sent, and they were carried by Misses Mamie Meyers, Minnie Burch, Helen and Pauline Leach. The pall-bearers were: Misses Kate Mirtz, Emma Leugler, Carrie Nape, and Lizzie Aupsenback.

NOTICE OF NEWS.

John D. Boland, of Cherry street, had his right hand badly injured yesterday at his work near the "Rumpler" at the South Side. He was standing by the side of an ash car, and the swinging side of the car that admits the emptying of the contents became loosened and fell, catching Boland's hand. The member was crushed almost to a pulp, and amputation may be necessary.

At the residence of the bride, Monday evening, Miss Stella Brownell, of 320 Fig street, was married to George Owens, of Carbondale. Rev. J. L. Race, pastor of the Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, performed the ceremony, and the couple were unattended. They will reside in Carbondale, where Mr. Owens is employed as a trainman.

This morning the funeral of the late Thomas Mahon, will take place from his late home, on Fig street. A solemn high mass of requiem will be sung in St. John's church, and interment will be made in Minooka Catholic cemetery. Columbus council, Y. M. L. S. Aloysius society, and the South Scranton Tourist club will attend the funeral in a body.

Mrs. C. J. O'Hara and P. S. Douglas and Mr. A. C. Smith, members of Scranton Tent 253, Knights of Macedonia, of the central city, addressed a number of men of this side in Phillips' hall last night, outlining the aim and object of St. John's hall tomorrow evening, and the patrons of that resort are promised an entertainment of no little excellence. The programme arranged is a good one, and among the talent to appear are: Misses Mame Shearon, Rose Aragoni, Mame Cook, Ben Morgan, tenor soloist; Kearney and Cawley, black-face comedians and dancers; Sidney Hughes, Tony Cawley, Klondike quartette, and the four "rubes," Kearney, Cawley, Honan and Cawley.

Miss Lauretta Convey has returned from a two months' stay at Baltimore.

DUNMORE DOINGS.

Council Meeting Last Night. At last night's council meeting there were present Messrs. Medway, McCulloch, Weber, McAllister, Barker and Jones.

Mr. Medway's suggestion that new rules be adopted was referred to the committee on rules with instructions to report at the next meeting.

A communication from Drinker street property owners asking that a grade for sidewalks be established was referred to the railways committee. Throughfares in that part of the borough are owned by the Drinker Turnpike company, a fact that will have to be considered in connection with the property owners' communication.

A sweeping change in the police department was made in confirming the following nominations of the Burgess: Chief of police, John G. Derks, to succeed P. J. Healey; patrolmen, Louis Sawyer and Fred Benber, to succeed
